SIMPLIFILE AND TRIADIC ENTERPRISES FORM STRATEGIC ALLIANCE

PROVO, UTAH – September 10, 2009 – Simplifile, the leader in e-recording, and Triadic Enterprises, Inc., a provider of high performance computer services for government entities in New Mexico, announced the formation of a strategic alliance between the two companies and the integration of the Triadic Recording Software into the Simplifile e-recording network.

The newly formed partnership will allow counties that use the Triadic Recording Software to electronically record (e-recording) land record documents such as deeds, mortgages, and reconveyances submitted by title companies, abstractors, banks, and attorneys through the Simplifile E-recording Service. The strategic alliance also provides for Simplifile and Triadic to cooperatively market the alliance and resulting services to their mutual customers.

"Triadic Enterprises, Inc. is proud to be associated with Simplifile," said Mike Hofacket, President of Triadic Enterprises, Inc. "For thirty years, we have strived to give our customers a quality product that is easy to use and has a personal touch. Simplifile and their e-recording services bring the best of these qualities to the forefront. The Simplifile system is easy, secure, innovative, and blends with our products to bring remarkable benefit to our customers to enhance their service to the public."

"Simplifile is pleased to work with Triadic Enterprises to automate the document recording process," said Erik Blomquist, Simplifile Vice President of Technology. "Triadic Enterprises provides record automation technologies to many local government agencies throughout New Mexico. By integrating Triadic Enterprises' Recording Software system into the Simplifile e-recording network, the combined offering brings the benefits of e-recording to key markets nationwide."
